- Accidental death claims will be paid immediately provided that the policy is in force, and we have received the 1st premium. In other words, no waiting period is applicable.
- The waiting period for death due to natural causes is six (6) months.
- There is no waiting period for accidental death.
- There is a waiting period of twelve (12) months for suicide.

TERMS AND CONDITIONS

EXCLUSIONS

All Benefits will not be paid if death is directly or indirectly caused by or attributable to:

• Terrorism or war (whether declared or not).

• Radioactive contamination, whether directly or indirectly.

• Death as a result of illegal activities.

• Death due to suicide will not be covered during the first 12 months after the cover commenced for that individual.

• Divorced spouses at inception of the policy are not covered, and cover for spouses who divorce during the term of the policy will cease immediately on divorce.

GRACE PERIOD

• After the first premium is paid, a Grace Period of 1 (one) month will be allowed for the payment of future premiums.

• The Plan will remain in force during the Grace Period.

• If the arrear premium for a Grace period and the premium due for month after a Grace Period are not paid by the end of the second month, the Plan will lapse.

LAPSE PERIOD

Plan will lapse if two consecutive premiums are missed (this includes the Grace Period)

REINSTATEMENT PERIOD

Plan can only be re-instated two months after lapse, and unexpired part of the waiting period will be applicable for the Extended Members.

COOLING OFF PERIOD

From the date that RMA receives this completed application form, there is a 31 (thirty-one) day period in which the applicant still has the option to cancel the policy. RMA must be notified in writing to have the policy cancelled and any premiums that may have been deducted, refunded. If no such notification is received within 31 days from receipt of this document, RMA will consider the policy taken up.

• Provided that no death or claim has taken place in this period, should he/she elect not to take up the Policy, he/she must inform RMA in writing of his/her intention not to accept.

• All premiums already paid shall be refunded, less the cost of any risk cover or administration cost incurred.

CANCELLATION

After the 31 days cooling off period has ended, the policyholder as well as RMA reserves the right to cancel this Policy at any time after giving the other party 1 (one) month written notice of such intention.

PLAN REVIEW

• The rates are not guaranteed for any term. RMA reserves the right to do a review on the plan annually or at any point in time should the claims ratio deteriorates or should there be any material changes in the make-up of the scheme, such as the number of members, the average age of the group, nature of business, or any other criteria that may affect the risk profile of the scheme. The premium increase will be done once per annum and will not be linked to any commensurate increase in policy benefits.

• A notification of 3 (three) months will be given to the Policyholder after review, to either

- Accept and pay the revised premium rates; Request for a benefit reduction; or cancel the policy.
- Failure to pay the revised premium will result in RMA implementing a benefit reduction or cancelling the policy.

DISSOLUTION

On dissolution of the Plan, all RMA's liabilities towards the existing and any former Principal Members and Dependents will cease as from the day of the last premium received or the date of dissolution, whichever is the later.

CONTINUATION OPTION

Should a Principal Member cease to be a member of an existing fund, he / she has an option of applying to RMA an for a similar individual funeral policy. RMA allows for 30 days after receipt of the last premium for conversion to an individual policy. An unexpired part of the waiting period under the previous cover will be applicable for natural death.

SURRENDER VALUES

There are no surrender values under this Plan. Benefits under this Plan may not be ceded or pledged in any way. No loans are available under this Plan.

FRAUDULENT CLAIMS

If any fraudulent claim is made against this Policy, RMA will be under no further obligation whatsoever to pay this claim, and shall, at its own discretion, be entitled to cancel the Policy with immediate effect.
